ELABORATE AFFAIR.

The Luncheon-Euchre Given By Mrs. Snyder Was One of the Swelllest Affairs Ever Given in Montgomery County.

On last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Geo. R. Snyder entertained exquisitely from 12 to 4 p. m. at her beautiful home on the Winchester pike, with a Luncheon-euchre. The house was artistically decorated, the parlor and dining room in pink, the library in red and the round table was made beautiful with its lace cover, center piece of pink roses and shaded lights. A delicious dinner was served of many courses.

Mrs. H. G. Hoffman, Misses Laura Williams and Anna Caswell Prewitt presided at the frappe table. Those who assisted the hostess in entertaining were:

Mrs. E. H. Goodpaster, of Owingsville; Mrs. Stanley Prewitt and Mrs. Price Fishback, of Lexington; Mrs. D. M. Chenault, of Richmond; Mrs. Geo. G. Prewitt, Mrs. Nelson P. Gay, Mrs. Henry M. Jones, Mrs. Robt. Gay and Mrs. Will Gay, of Winchester.

There were about one hundred guests present and all pronounced Mrs. Snyder's party one of the prettiest and most enjoyable social functions ever given in Montgomery county.

Attention, Ladies!

Be sure and attend our cloak and suit opening Tuesday, Oct. 4. A special representative from the city will be here for the day only.

MRS. D. N. YOUNG

Died Monday Afternoon After a Lingering Illness.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Anna Brown Young, wife of Mr. D. N. Young, departed this life, after an illness of more than one year.

Mrs. Young was a native of Mercer county, she was married to Mr. Young over thirty-five years ago. They resided in Harrodsburg for several years and then moved to Owingsville. And about six years ago they moved to this city, where Mr. Young has been prominently connected in various business enterprises.

Mrs. Young had made many friends during the few years she had been a resident of Mt. Sterling. She was in her fifty-fourth year and was a devoted member of the Methodist church. She was a noble woman, always true to her friends and loved ones, and will be greatly missed by her large circle of acquaintances.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. D. Minor Davis, and one sister, Mrs. McCabe, all of this city. The remains were taken to Harrodsburg Tuesday morning for burial. To the sorrowing ones we extend our deepest sympathy.

Don't fail to see our up-to-date line of cloaks and suits Tuesday, Oct. 4. You can't afford to miss this opportunity of meeting an experienced representative from the city.

New Insurance Firm.

John S. Frazer and B. Frank Perry have formed a partnership and secured the agency of several companies and will write insurance of all kinds. Both of these gentlemen are energetic and popular and will no doubt be successful in their new enterprise.

Hoffman doesn't talk insurance like anybody else. He plucks the subject from its womb and makes it easy to consider with his demise may never others. And there are some who have foresight enough to take a thought of the comfort a snug sum "coming in" old age gives.

Sunday School Convention.

The Forty-Fifth Annual Convention of the Kentucky State Sunday School Association will be held in Winchester October 6-9. A large delegation is expected especially from the surrounding counties. A splendid program has been prepared and every one interested in Sunday School work should attend.

You could not learn so much about Sunday School work by the reading of many books as you can by attending a State Convention. While it costs something, it is well worth the value of your money. The personal touch with their workers is worth something that is beyond price. One of the big things of the convention will be the Home Visitation an object lesson in this department of the work. All county Superintendents of this department should be there and see how it is done.

Another interesting feature will be the parade of the Men's Bible Classes. The men of other States have been marching at their State Conventions and the men of Kentucky will fall in line. This parade will take place Friday afternoon. The banner carried at the World's Convention will head the parade, then such other banners as individual classes may bring with them. All classes are requested to bring banners if they have them and to wear any distinctive badges. At five thirty Saturday afternoon there will be a supper and conference for the State Committee, Local Committees and officers and Superintendents of departments.

Any one wanting Credentials of Delegates can secure them from their pastor or president or secretary. All pastors and superintendents of Sunday Schools or delegates by virtue of their office. ***

Kentucky Federation of Women's Club.

The Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs had an interesting exhibit in the State Fair this year, showing the work of the organization.

It was first planned to erect a model country schoolhouse, a model kitchen, and show a vacant lot transformed by clearing and arranging. They found it impossible to have the model kitchen, but it will be in operation in another year.

Mrs. John L. Woodbury, after a month of hard work, succeeded in collecting $1,100 to build the schoolhouse and hoped to procure the remaining $400 during the Fair.

As the building is a permanent one, equipment can be added each year.

A Compliment To Mt. Sterling.

John W. William, of this city, with a large crew of men from Lexington, Winchester and Mt. Sterling, left Monday morning for Paris, Ky., where he has been engaged by the owners of the Windsor Hotel, that was badly damaged by fire a few weeks ago, to put the same in first-class repair.

The historic dining room will receive special attention, and will have a steel ceiling, and when finished will be one of the prettiest dining rooms in the State. The Managers are sparing no expense putting in new equipment and when ready for business in a few weeks, the hotel will again be first-class in every particular.

AMUSEMENTS.

W. F. Mann presents a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' well-known and popular novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," by Lem B. Farmer. The play has as its foundation the contrasts of character in the two sisters, out of which grows naturally and inevitably the episodes and entanglements which combine to make the plot. The play is entertaining and well told, pure, sweet, an idyll of loyalty of love, thrilled through and through with the tender grace of a day that is dead.

All who desire to see a first-class production presented in a first-class manner, should not fail to see "Tempest and Sunshine" at the Tabb Opera House, Tuesday, October 4.

Kindness.

There is nothing like kindness in the world. It is the very principle of love; an emanation of the heart which softens and gladdens, and should be inculcated and encouraged in all our intercourse with our fellow beings. It is impossible to resist continued kindness. We may in a moment of petulance or passion, manifest coldness to the exhibition of good will on the part of a new acquaintance; but let him persist, let him continue to prove himself really benevolent of heart, generously and kindly disposed, and we will find our stubborn nature giving way, even unconsciously to ourselves. If this be the result of kindness a man among comparative strangers, how much more certain and delightful will be the exercise of the feelings at home, within the charmed circle of friends and relatives! Home enjoyments, home affections, home courtesies, cannot be too carefully or steadily cultivated. They form the sunshine of the heart. They bless and sanctify our private circle. They become a source of calm delight to the man of business after a day of toil, they teach the merchant, the trader, the working man, that there is something purer, more precious even, than the gains of industry. They twine themselves around the heart, call forth its best and purest emotions and resources, enable us to be more virtuous, more upright, more Christian, in all our relations of life. We see in the little beings around us the elements of fidelity and religion. A day of toil is robbed of many of its cares by the thought that in the evening we may return home and mingle with the family household.

The Horse.

Some feats of great endurance for a few days of hard riding have been accomplished by saddle horses in contests in the West and in army tests in Europe. For a few days horses have averaged around 100 miles a day with a rider. Most of the very long trips with horses have been made with an occasional or frequent change of mounts, so that the long-distance covering capacity of individual horses has not been brought to test. The probability is, as L. Ogilvy suggests in a recent issue, that horses schooled so long trips and sleeping in strange stables might accomplish feats of long-distance travel, even if they failed to exceed the record made by Western in walking across the continent. Fifty miles a day would do it. An attempt to establish a record for long riding with a horse was made last year by H. New Weatherly in a ride from New York to Chicago and return. Unfortunately on the trip west he was compelled to race his thoroughly maimed mount to earn money for expenses, necessitating delay and enduring much hardship on the horse. As it was, the gelding, Esteban, covered about 1,200 miles by the road between New York and Chicago in nineteen days' actual travel or an average of sixty-three miles a day. After a rest of three months, although the horse was in fair condition when he arrived in Chicago, he covered the first 750 miles of the return trip in fourteen days of successive travel. He was then hindered again, but was not forced to stop because of lack of ability to go on. The average for the distance covered before the stop was thus fifty-six miles per day. It is impossible to say what he might have done in four or five times the distance.

W. S. Lloyd's Success.

W. S. Lloyd, the enterprising druggist, rather than await the ordinary methods of introduction, urged the Dr. Howard Co. to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c bottle at half price.

In addition to selling a 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25c, W. S. Lloyd has so much faith in the remedy that he will refund the money to anyone whom it does not cure.

When your head aches, your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally when there is constipation, specks before the eyes, tired feeling, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heart burn, sour stomach, roaring or ringing in the ears, melancholy and liver troubles, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. 12-15

F. C. Nunemacher Found.

Frank C. Nunemacher was found at Salt Sulphur Springs. He was scarcely conscious, so weak was he from fatigue and lack of food.

Mr. Nunemacher had evidently walked a great distance and reached his destination on foot. His clothing was tattered and there were blisters on his feet. He is unable to give a very clear account of his wanderings, and seems mentally unbalanced, but speaks of having traveled seventy miles in a freight car and tramping great distances.

His physical powers were completely prostrated. He is now rallying slowly, and seems content to find himself at the beautiful mountain resort where he has spent twelve summers. He says he left Louisville with just eighteen cents in his pocket. Mr. Nunemacher is receiving every possible attention from the proprietor of Salt Sulphur, Gen. Ap. plton, his personal friend.

Over Score Killed in Traction Wreck.

Between twenty and forty persons were killed September 21 in a collision between a south-bound limited and north-bound local car at the Fort Wayne and Bluffton branch of the Wabash Valley traction line, at Kingsland, Ind., eighteen miles south of Fort Wayne. Many others were injured.

The cars, running at full speed, met on a curve a quarter of a mile north of Kingsland, and before the cars could be brought under control of the brakes the crash came.

A special car with physicians and all possible emergency relief was hurried to the scene by the traction company.

Ollie James Out for United States Senator.

In an authorized interview given out in Frankfort Congressman, Ollie James, of the First district, announced himself a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Thomas H. Payne.

Mr. James said he would be a candidate until the votes are counted on the final ballot in the Joint Assembly of the Legislature, and was a candidate in no matter in what way the nomination was made.

He declared that he is not and will not be a candidate for Speaker of the House, but is for Champ Clark, of Mississippi.

Death For Doctor Who Failed to Cure Him.

Armed with a revolver, a pair of brass knuckles and an open knife and awaiting his turn in the office of Dr. J. R. Sewell, W. M. Cox, aged 36, of Austell, Ga., shot and instantly killed the physician just as the latter was emerging from his operating room. Cox then turned the weapon on himself and pulled the trigger. He is now at the Grady Hospital with a fractured skull.

Cox has been a patient of Dr. Sewell for several weeks, and when searched by the police a received bill for $30 given by the physician was found in his clothing.

It is understood that Cox has been brooding for some time because of fancied wrongs at the hands of the physician. He has stated, it is said, that the physician promised to cure him of a chronic disease in return for $100, but instead of getting better his condition has grown worse.

There were no witnesses to the shooting, although another patient who had just left the physician's office a few seconds previously heard the shots, and upon running back, found Dr. Sewell dying and Cox unconscious on the floor.

Dr. Sewell, aged 46, survived by a wife and six children. Cox is unmarried, and is the son of Stephen Cox, a farmer, living near Austell. A coroner's jury has ordered Cox held for investigation pending his recovery.

Colorado E. makes New World's Record.

The racing of the trotting division of the Kentucky Stock Farm Futility at Grand Circuit races brought forth a world's record mile by Colorado E., owned by George H. Estebrook, of Denver. This three-year-old trotter, voluntarily reduced this record from 2:06 1/2 to 2:05 1/2.

No declaration of driver Gus Macey's intention was made public. The first heat of the race, on which there was no betting, because of the admitted superiority of Colorado E., was easy for him in 2:08 1/2. Finding the conditions suitable, the colt's driver treated an expectant crowd to a champion ship mile the second time out.

Like the first quarter of the initial mile, the opening quarter of the record one was trotted in 30 1/2 seconds. Four lengths ahead of Emily Ellen, Colorado E., made the half in 1:52 1/2 and the three quarters in 1:33 1/2. That rate of speed made a new record probable. Macey did not hurry his champion home from the last turn but the last quarter was completed in 32 1/2 seconds which makes the mile 2:05 1/2.

Concrete Facts.

Pulverized wood is sometimes mixed with cement for making what is known as wood concrete. This is lighter than concrete that is made with sand and stone, and is also subjected to less heat of wood. The pulverized product is very much like sawdust. The chief advantage of wood concrete over ordinary concrete is that it is soft enough to permit of nails being driven into it.

HOW THEY READ THE PAPER

Marked Individuality Is Shown In Manner In Which Different People Hold Paper.

We heard it said the other day, by whom, for the life of us, we cannot remember—in the general clangor of life's din it is so exceedingly difficult to trace even the comparatively few notes that emerge distinctly from the mass of sound with easy distinctness—we heard it said the other day, we repeat, that every one has his own individual method of reading his newspaper. An allusion was made in that observation to the difference in people's methods of grasping the printed sheet when they are in the act of reading it. Some hold it widely in front of them, using two hands; others adopt an intricate process of folding so that the part they are perusing is continually presented in a kind of emphatic isolation. There are people who are accustomed to read the newspaper in the train whenever they travel, and yet are never able to gain the mastery of the printed columns, which swell to gigantic proportions and envelop all the other passengers in the compartment amid a crackling like continuous but badly timed volley firing. And that word reminds us of the long sticks with handles to which the paper is sometimes attached in cafes. Always more than we can manage, they would be really serviceable, we have often thought, in military operations when the signalmen suddenly find that they have run out of flags.—London Globe.

MISTAKEN

Chumley—Wasn't that horse of yours a race horse once?
Turfy—Not exactly, but I thought he was.

NOT STARTING, BUT ARRIVING.

Doctor Mather believed that birds flew in their migrations to an undiscovered satellite, a little moon that had never been discovered, but was only a short distance from the earth. But it is marvelous how a bird knows just when to migrate, for it times its migration, not to the exact day of the year but to the exactly right season to arrive when the fruits or seeds or insects, for which it is wild-hungry, are exactly ready for bird bill of fare. No migrating bird is ever cheated or mistaken like people and almanac makers by late bad seasons, for if the season is late Mr. Bird arrives late to suit. How can a robin in Canada, hundreds of miles away, tell to a day when the first fruits of Louisiana are on tap?

MOTION PICTURES OF INSECTS.

A French inventor, M. Bull, has perfected a cinematograph with which pictures of insects in flight may be taken, and afterward exhibited in motion upon a screen or in a stereoscopic apparatus. As many as 2,000 images per second may be made by the flying insects, as represented by the images, the latter can be caused to pass with relatively great deliberation, so that only 12 or 15, or even only two or three, succeed one another per second. By an ingenious device M. Bull causes the insect itself to make an electric contact, and thus set the apparatus in motion at the beginning of its flight.

"Married for Money" Certainly Applies Here.

With a fortune estimated as high as $50,000,000, John S. Lytle who will be ninety-three years old next month, has just taken a wife, whom he has established in his beautiful country home. The bride, who was Miss Julia Hannan, a trained nurse, is only thirty years old, and met her husband when she was sent from a hospital to care for his sister-in-law two years ago. She will inherit his entire fortune, as there was no children from his first marriage.

Light Cattle as An Investment.

Signs of increasing interest in light stock cattle are easy to detect. The 700 to 800 pound class has experienced sharp appreciation in value recently. The advance at Missouri River markets from the low point of July is about 75 cents per cwt., and Chicago quotations show similar gain. Difficulty is now experienced in getting anything in the stocker line with decent quality below $4.50 per cwt., and the tendency is steadily upward.

Many regard money put into these light cattle as well invested. Recent experience has demonstrated this to be a fact. Reviving pastures and an abundance of forage are making July and early August purchases look cheap.

Without heavy feeding these little cattle, if well handled, ought to be in good condition next spring to satisfy either feeder buyers or killers of cheap cattle. From an investment standpoint they are valuable to the man who places a value on manure as a feed.

There was a time, not far back in the past, when wintering stock cattle was not regarded as remunerative; but the high prices such stuff has realized during the spring months lately has been responsible for a radical change of opinion. Cheap killing steers are not likely to be cheaper next spring than last, and when in any sort of decent flesh will doubtless get the benefit of competition between butchers and feeders.

A Beautiful Life.

A beautiful life is an honest life. A life of truthfulness, of nobility of the soul and a life of devotion to our loved ones here and to the God who created us. Life, indeed, is but a river running with rapidity, onward, onward, ever-on. It runs, alas! too swiftly. We have not one moment in which to hesitate or spend in idleness. We should place a guard on our everyday actions, as we travel along life's journey. Just one unkind word can never be recalled; how much better had it never been spoken. Kind words! How little they cost, and yet how dear! Soft words soften the soul. Words harsh and angry kindle the fire of wrath and vengeance. Cold words chill while hot ones create fire and discord. There are vain words, idle words, silly words, spiteful words and a multitude of others to guard against. By trying daily to imitate Him who had not where to lay his head only, can we live a beautiful life.

FOR CONGRESS

A. FLOYD BYRD
Of Clark County

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce

as a candidate for County Court Clerk of Montgomery county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

THE INCUBATOR CASE.

A few days ago, at the State Fair in Louisville, an exhibition known as the "Baby Incubator Show" was had and three of the babies, aged four, five and eight weeks, respectively, were permitted to die, due to inanition or lack of food and attention. After three days duration, the show was stopped by the authorities and H. K. Snyder and wife, who had charge of the performance, were placed under arrest. On the trial of these parties last week, it developed that two other babies had died while the same show was at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and under the headlines "Heavy fines assessed against baby incubator operators," we are told by the daily press that Snyder, (who called himself Dr. Snyder, but in fact was not a physician at all), was fined $5.00 and costs in nine cases and his wife $1.00 and costs in a like number of charges.

If the authorities really want to break up this barbarous practice, instead of assessing fines in such cases, why not try a term in the penitentiary? It is hard to persuade the average layman to look so lightly upon human life.

BYRD WORKING HARD.

Hon. A. Floyd Byrd, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, has gone to work in earnest with headquarters at Winchester. In a few days he will announce a list of speaking appointments and expects to make things hot for Promissory Langley from now until the day of the election. The latter has opened headquarters here, with the same old crowd in charge, and will no doubt flood the district, as heretofore, with literature of various kinds, a large portion of which has been printed and will be mailed at the expense of the Government.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS!

Next Tuesday, October 4, is Registration Day. In order to have the legal right to vote in any election held during the next year, you must register, unless prevented by sickness or absence from the city.

Kentucky is a Democratic State, and 1910 is a Democratic year. From Maine to California there has been a public awakening and all that is necessary to insure a Democratic victory in this District is to have every Democrat in it do his full duty. Register early and see that your Democratic neighbor does likewise.

JAMES A. CANDIDATE.

Congressman Ollie M. James has announced himself as a candidate for United States Senator to succeed Hon. Thomas H. Paynter. No man in Kentucky occupies a warmer spot in the affections of the voters than he, and his entrance into the fight promises to make it a lively one. Without pretending to be political prophets we venture to remark en passant that the man who beats Ollie will know he has "been to the races."

ON THE RUN.

The fact that Congressman Langley had an appointment at Irvine and ran away and left it for the reason of no crowd or because Democratic nominee, Mr. Byrd, happened to get to the county seat near the speaking hour, is evidence that he is on the run. That Langley don't care to meet Mr. Byrd shows wisdom. He can't afford to back up against a circular saw.

SAW THE HANDWRITING.

Capt. Nat Howard, erstwhile Republican nominee in the Third Congressional District, must have had his ear to the ground, or been told by a little bird that this is a Democratic year, since he threw up the sponge last week and withdrew from the race.

Two more weeks of working weather will be sufficient to finish the system of sewerage now in course of construction, and when completed, it is said authoritatively, that the system will be without a superior anywhere.

OFFICIAL CALL

Sent Out for Meeting of State Democratic Campaign Committee.

The State Democratic Campaign Committee was called for a meeting in Louisville on Tuesday. The official call sent out by Chairman Allie W. Young is as follows: "Louisville, Ky., Sept. 23.—Dear Sir! A meeting of the Democratic Campaign Committee will be held at the Louisville Hotel in the city of Louisville, at 1 o'clock p.m. on Tuesday, September 27, 1910. In the doubtful congressional districts an organization has already been perfected, as you no doubt are aware, and on account of the short time between now and the election a most vigorous and active campaign must be waged by the members of the State Committee if we hope to fully discharge our duty. It is therefore very essential that each member personally attend, together with the nominees of the respective districts.

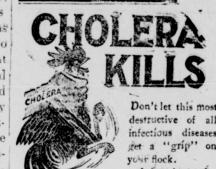

This is a Democratic State. The Republicans now temporarily in charge of the affairs of this state have shown themselves wholly incompetent to perform the trust committed to them by the people, which unfortunatly occurred through factional differences in our beloved party. Hence I trust and hope you will attend this meeting with an eye single alone upon the warfare to be waged this fall against the common enemy. With such a feeling prevailing with the members of this committee the distinshions of our State must and will be directed by Democrats, i.e. Kentuckians. Sincerely yours,

"Allie W. YOUNG, Chairman.

PEOPLE WE KNOW

They Are Mt. Sterling People and What They Say Is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, people become skeptical. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

Thomas Holland, 52 E. High street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally for two years and I consider them to be an excellent remedy. Doctors pronounced my trouble lumbago and I spent hundreds of dollars in an unsuccessful effort to find relief. Doan's Kidney Pills, however, which I procured at F. C. Duerden's drug store, did me more good than any other remedy I had previously taken. They removed the backache, and regulated the passages of the kidney secretions, in fact, entirely cured me."

The Harvester Goes A Mile 2:01 Flat At Columbus.

To the track that for nine years held the stallion trotting championship because of the 2:21 mile by Crescens, there came back the title when the Harvester went a brilliant mile in 2:01 flat and thereby took a quarter of a second off the time he made last week at Sycamore.

Although weather conditions were favorable, Driver Geers, a moment after he had dismounted and acknowledged an ovation from the crowd, declared his intention to make an attack next Thursday upon the record if the track can be made solid close to the rail.

Because of the loose footing, The Harvester had to step a long mile. He was a trifle weary at the finish and did not flash through the last quarter as he has done at other points on the Grand Circuit.

Shortly before 5 o'clock, the champion was sent away rushing and won the first quarter in 2:01. Over on the back stretch, one runner became a trailer. The second quarter was stepped in 30. In the third there was put a slight slackening and the time for it was 3:01 seconds. A final quarter in 3:11 seconds made the mile a winning one as the Harvester had started to beat 2:01.

President Taft has nothing to say. Neither did the boy that the calf ran over.—Winchester Sun Sentinel.

Friends in Sharpsburg received word from Dr. E. O. John Carmidy, of this town, accompanied young Guerrant to South America, being also an electrical engineer.

GETS ANOTHER ON CRIMINAL

M. Bertillon Studies Human Hair to Further Perfect His System of Identification.

Human hair is now the study of that untiring criminal statistician, M. Bertillon, who invented the science of finger prints. He is engaged in drawing up a complete classified and graduated table of all the colors of the human hair. He has already received specimens from many parts of the world, but asks for more and as many as possible to send him.

A complete palette, so to speak, of the colors of the human hair is, in his opinion, a long-felt want. When a man is wanted by the police in any country the hue of his hair is only vaguely described, and the terms used have no standard meaning. What is called fair in Sicily is considered as dark in Scandinavia, and vice versa.

When he has gathered together a complete collection of hair from every part of the world M. Bertillon will classify them carefully, according to a graduated scale of shades, and then number each. Thus if he begins at one with the darkest raven black, the highest figure will be that of the lightest flaxen known. When the scale is ready and has been communicated to the police all over the world the description of a man who is wanted will mention, for instance, "hair Nos 17 to 32," and the Scandinavian will know as well as the Sicilian police what color is meant within a fairly close approximation. Henceforth burglars who already wear gloves when on the job for fear of leaving finger prints, will have to keep their heads shaved.

STEAMER WAS GOING SOME

Yankee Was Afraid Friction Would Wear the Lake Out Mighty Quick.

One of the Chicago-Milwaukee steamers was plying her way northward recently when a young woman voyager walked up to the captain and asked:

"Captain, are we really going fast? It seems as if we were just crawling."

"Crawling!" blustered the captain. "Crawling! Say, we're going so fast the friction is making the water hot behind us."

The girl giggled. "I don't believe it," she gurgled.

With a great show of indignation the captain started aft, grabbing bucket and rope on the way. He slung the pail down, directly under the drain pipe of the galley where hot water runs all day and brought it up smoking, to the astonishment of the awe-struck girl.

"My gracious!" she exclaimed.

A long, lean Yankee just down from York state and taking in the sights, had been watching the performance. He walked over, looked the captain, the bucket and the girl over, and drawled:

"Say, cap'n, that must make yeen change your course pretty often."

"Change my course! What would I change my course for?" blustered the captain.

"Wall so darn much friction as that must wear th' lake out mighty quick!"

SAY SOMETHING.

On board an ocean liner were a lady and gentleman, accompanied by their young, hopeful, aged six, and, as is usually the case, the parents were very sick, while little Willie was the weakest thing on board. One day the parents were lying in their steamer chairs hoping that they would die, and little Willie was playing about the deck.

Willie did something of which his mother did not approve, so she said to her husband: "John, please speak to Willie." The husband, with the little strength left in his wasted form, looked at his son and heir and feebly muttered: "How'dy do, Willie."

RIFLE SHOOTING FOR SCHOOLS.

The Austrian government has decided to give instructions in rifle shooting in all the secondary schools. The experiment will be started by the Eighth army corps, which has its headquarters in Prague.

The sum of 50,000 kronen has been appropriated for the experiment. Rifles and 100,000 cartridges will be provided free, while a further supply of 50,000 cartridges will be supplied at cost price.—Berliner Morgenpost.

STOOPS.

Only a few farms have finished housing tobacco.

The infant son of Sam Piersall and wife, has been very ill.

A large amount of tobacco has been house burning. What next is going to strike it.

Miss Lorraine Piersall whose collar bone was broken a few days ago, is able to be out again.

"Stoops" must confess ignorance on one thing. We've never yet seen a hobble skirt, and if they look like their picture, we don't want to see one, especially if there's a woman in it.

Mrs. T. J. Northcutt, of Judy, still remains seriously ill.

Miss Nannie Young, of near Owingsville, visited Lee Young and wife last week.

Thomas Roberson sold a fine pair of work mules to A. B. Setters, for $450.

School Supt. M. J. Givens, visited the school here Friday.

Wednesday morning Lee Young was driving a hog on the Hindston, pike and while trying to get it across a bridge it ran backwards striking Mr. Young and knocking him down with such force, that the right knee-cap was broken.

Mrs. Ella Hamilton, and daughter, Miss Emma D. visited relatives near Owingsville, Saturday and Sunday.

The scholars of Fairview school will give a pig social Friday night. Every pig eater there.

Mrs. W. M. Kissick, formerly of this place is seriously sick at her home at Little Rock.

The continued wet weather is causing the tobacco growers a loss beyond estimation.

About 1,500 cattle on the market, and most of them sold. Cows brought 11 cents; steers, 31 to 54 cents; heifers, 31 to 41 cents.

A large number of weanling mules were on the market, but very few were sold. Buyers claimed they were not worth as much as ten dollars each as they were last court and holders were not willing to make the desired concession.

Don't fail to see our up-to-date line of cloaks and suits Tuesday, Oct. 4. You can't afford to miss this opportunity of meeting an experienced representative from the city.
